Executive Note

NOVEMBER 2023

This summer was the first anniversary of the Dobbs decision. This moment gave us time to reflect on where we are as an organization, one year after that momentous decision, and to begin to prepare for what will be a critical political year ahead.

We also took time to gather with our community and celebrate! We hosted several community and education events across the state, bringing together supporters, artists, and activists.

These included the first ever Outdoor Summer Feast with artist Karra Wise, Access Walk, and our very own Repro Freedom Book Club!

At the same time, our PAC and organizing teams geared up for local elections by interviewing and endorsing candidates, educating and engaging voters all across Washington, and showing up in communities to talk about reproductive freedom in this election.

Our team and operating budget are small but strategic, and every dollar given to us is put to very good work.

We cannot do it without you!

PASSING POLICIES

Legislative Action: Pro-Choice Washington hosted a Keep Our Care Act (KOCA) campaign briefing for legislators with ACLU-WA, PPAA, Legal Voice, Gender Justice League, and Cedar River Clinics.

Our regional organizing team is running a letter to the editor and story gathering campaign for KOCA.

ELECTING CHAMPIONS

Candidate Endorsements: Pro-Choice Washington's PAC endorsed several incredible candidates in key races in Spokane, Whatcom, Snohomish, King, and Pierce Counties to expand our impact and commitment to statewide action.

The PAC also endorsed Bob Ferguson for Governor in 2024!

Seattle Electing Women: Pro-Choice Washington spoke at an event alongside Rep. Pramila Jayapal by Seattle Electing Women in support of Barbara Lee and the engagement of women in key races across the country.

Canvassing: Over the summer, the organizing team ran six canvassing events across the state in support of key candidates running in critical races.

Their election work is still going strong!

BUILDING A MOVEMENT

Community Activism: Our Regional Organizers worked closely with Pro-Choice Washington's Troublemakers to host spring organizing retreats.

The Kitsap Troublemakers also launched a chapter book club.

Chef & Artist Collaborations:

Along with local artist Karra Wise from "In the Shed", Pro-Choice Washington hosted our first annual Summer Feast in Mt. Baker, featuring artists and makers, Empire the Band, and paella by Ebb & Co.

INFORMATION SHARING

Abortion Access Salon: Hosted an evening virtual conversation on the current state of abortion access in Washington state and the Pacific Northwest with new and seasoned activists across the state!

This is part of a new Pro-Choice Washington event series, so keep an eye out for more!

Access Walk: Pro-Choice Washington joined partners Shout Your Abortion and Cedar River Clinics at the first annual Access Walk in Volunteer Park!
